

Welcome to Space City Jam 2019 - Endurance

Welcome to Space City Jam 2019 - Endurance! We at Houston Homeschool Athletics are extremely excited to host so many awesome homeschool basketball programs from all over the region. We want to make this an incredible experience for each player, coach, and family. We view this event as a way to serve the homeschool basketball community by providing an opportunity to come together as believers, to compete with excellence, and to honor God while doing so.

We are excited to see familiar faces that we see each year at SCJ and at other events, and we are just as excited to meet many new faces and make new friends. Please do not hesitate to reach out to any one of us at HHA during the event if you need anything.

Good luck to all of your teams, now let's play ball!!
