Release: There are risks associated with youth baseball including being hit by a ball, bat or colliding with another player. The risks also include injuries that may result from tripping or falling on or around the field area, the dugout, concession areas and parking lots. While reasonable efforts have been undertaken to prepare the fields for safe play, the individual tournament organizers, West Bend Little League, WBLL Baseball Booster's, the City of West Bend, West Bend Parks and Recreation, West Bend Baseball Association, the West Bend Board of Education and the West Bend High Schools (collectively, the Tournament Organizations) assume no responsibility for the condition of the fields, and disclaim any liability for the injuries described above. Coaches, players and parents are encouraged to inspect the field before play and report any concerns to the home plate umpire, or to the onsite tournament director. By taking the field, the players, coaches and parents assume all responsibility for injuries, accidents and damages that occur during the West Bend Father's Day Classic tournament, and hereby release the Tournament Organizations from liability for all such injuries or damages.
