

Dry camping will be available at the upper part of the Lions Park parking lot. It will be first come first serve. This is a gravel lot, so leveling blocks are recommended. Please park in designated areas. Also, please keep everything super clean as we are guests of the city and want to be able to do this again. As you can see, Sawtooth Brewery and other restaurants are in walking distance.

