Refund/Weather and Cancellation Policy:

C4 Fastpitch will do everything possible to avoid cancelling any event but in the event there are any interruptions C4 Fastpitch reserves the right to change and/or alter the schedule or times when appropriate in order to complete the event. A game has started once the meeting with the ump is complete.

(Proceed to the next page)

- No refunds will be given once the registration period has been closed.
- Credit may be provided toward a future event if there were to be any interruptions where the event couldn't be completed.

Also in the event of a cancellation prior to the event and after the schedule has been released, we will keep your $100 deposit and apply it to a future C4 Fastpitch event and refund you the rest of the balance the same way it was sent. If requested by the head coach, we can also apply the whole balance toward a future C4 Fastpitch event.

For camps, there will be no refunds once registration for the camp has closed which is typically is the start of the event. If a camper is not able to attend the camp and has paid, they will be able to attend a future camp up to one year from the date of the camp.
